

GOSSIP FOR THE LADIES.

Miss Bangs.

The beautiful, buxom Bortha Bangs, is one of our divinest girls. She bangs the door and bangs the chairs. And likewise bangs her auburn curls. She bangs on the piano, too. And bangs upon the light guitar— But oh, of all the bangs she bangs. She mostly bangs her auburn hair.

O banging, bouncing, buxom belle, The poet's lyre with rapturous bangs— Responsive to the influence Of thy beloved and beautiful bangs.

Short bridal dresses with court trains are to be the style this winter.

Chemises are going out of style and are being replaced by tight fitting undergarments, handsomely embroidered.

Gown grain ribbon is so hopelessly out of fashion that one can buy whole pieces in very pretty shades at moderate price.

Brother Hayes was lately hugged by an Indianapolis lady, and he now acknowledges that there are some good things outside of Ohio.

Satin, foulards, Pekins and even more common goods, as well as brocaded silks, have the surface sprinkled with bright flowers.

New styles in lingerie have the collar and cuffs made of solid colored gingham embroidered with white in the turned over corners.

Jet trimmings, from their superior beauty, are much admired for early autumn mantles, and these are especially employed with French lace.

A female must be malevolent who would mark another woman's initials on a turtle's back, with date thirty years since, and then let the reptile go.

The Zulu women are permitted to marry until they reach the age of seventy, and then they have to cut wood, tan leather and become of some use to the community.—Free Press.

Fan plaits are much employed upon silk dresses, and these have bows of silk or velvet, as the toilet may require, placed at the top of each cluster.

Dark olives and dark wine colors are prominent in the new solid colors and wooden fabrics, as well as in silks and velvets.

It is when his wife hands him a brand new napkin, that has never had the starch washed out of it, that the newly married man thinks how much better he could clean his face with a yard or two of floor oilcloth.—Waterloo Observer.

A recent song by Marie Le Barron has been set to music and published. It is entitled "Kiss me, one but me," which will cause the lovers to throw it aside as a vain thing; but it is dedicated to "The Belle of Coney Island," which will cause several thousands of her to buy it.

A Grin correspondent says a gentleman formerly of that city, has five wives and five babies buried side by side in the cemetery of Griffin. They are enclosed by marble slabs, and have this appearance: "If I'll be it." The gentleman is now living with his sixth wife.

A young gentleman from St. Louis was walking along the shore at Lake Michigan with a Chicago girl when he saw on the sands what he supposed to be a devil fish, with its long tentacles spread out upon the submerged soil of Illinois. He was awakened from his dream by the young lady, who said: "I have just dropped my glove!"—New York Herald.

How to get sick.

Expose yourself day and night, eat too much without exercise, work too hard without rest, doctor all the time; take all the vile nostrums advertised; and then you will want to know how to get well.

Which is answered in three words—Take Hop Bitters! See other column.

Cuticura

REMEDIES

Have speedily and permanently cured Humors of the skin and scalp of children and infants afflicted since birth.

The treatment described in such cases is mild doses of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, a perfectly safe yet powerful Cuticura, the great skin cure. The CUTICURA SOAP should be the only soap applied to the diseased skin for cleansing purposes.

Humor on a Child

Since Birth Cured, after faithful Medical Treatment had failed.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen, My little son, two years of age, has humor on one side of his face since he was born, which during the last four months has spread over the entire side of the face, the child ear, and side of the head. It must have itched and irritated him a great deal, as he scratched the surface all the time, no matter what was applied. I used many remedies by advice of my friends and my physician without benefit until I found CUTICURA, which immediately allayed the itching and inflammation, and entirely cured him. Respectfully, JOHN L. SURLEY, 301 West 10th Street, St. Louis, Mo., April 15, 1898.

NOTE. Once cured, the skin may be rendered soft and fair by using the Cuticura Soap exclusively for toilet or nursery purposes.

CHILDREN AND INFANTS.

More Cures of Skin and Scalp Affections by the Cuticura Remedies.

Fred. Rohrer, Esq., Cashier Stock Growers' National Bank, Pueblo, Colo., writes: "I am so well pleased with its effects on my baby, that I cannot afford to be without it in my house. It is a wonderful cure, and is bound to become very popular as soon as its virtues are known to the masses."

S. S. Weeks, Esq., Town Treasurer, St. Albans, Vt., says in a letter dated Jan. 1898: "It works to a charm on my baby's face and head. Cured the head entirely, and has cleared the skin of sores. I have recommended it to several, and Dr. Platt has used it for them."

M. M. Chick, Esq., 4 Franklin St., Boston, says: "My little daughter, eighteen months old, has what the doctor calls Eczema. We have tried most everything, and at last have used CUTICURA, and she is almost a new child, and we feel very happy."

Prickly Heat.

Incidental to the Texas Climate. Enclosed please find one dollar for a large box of CUTICURA. The small one that I received some time ago has been very efficacious, especially in Prickly Heat or Rash, as some people call it. I am not noting it about. Yours truly, THOMAS W. BUCKLEY, Mason, Texas, Sept. 22, 1897.

CUTICURA is a most valuable external application. It heals all cuts, bruises, and abrasions of the skin, restores the hair when destroyed by scalp diseases, removes dandruff and keeps the scalp clean and the hair soft and pliable. It is as agreeable as it is effective, and is easily absorbed in every case by the CUTICURA SOAP, which is particularly recommended to mothers for cleansing the skin and scalp of infants and children. It is as toilet as well as medicinal, and is the most fragrant and refreshing soap for the nursery and bath of any these prepared.

Recent have our assurance that these Remedies contain nothing injurious to the youngest infant, evidence of which may be found in the certificates of Dr. Hayes and Prof. Merrick accompanying each remedy.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, 390 Washington Street, Boston, Mass., and are for sale by all Druggists. Price of Cuticura, small boxes, 20 cents; large boxes $1. Resolvent, $1 per bottle. Cuticura Soap, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; 3 cakes, 75 cents.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS

Fever and Ague is most common in the spring, but most severe in the fall and winter. It is strictly a malarious disease, and so surely as the Effluvia are adopted, so surely will the individual who adopts this precaution be exempted from its pains and penalties. Add to this its value as a stomachic and anti-bilious agent, and who will venture to dispute its claims to be placed among family medicines.

For sale by Druggists and respectable Dealers generally.
